

Mrs Acton's 'Thought for the day'

"It is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning
that we are pardoned."

St Francis of Assisi

Let us pray...

Today is Good Friday, the day we remember the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It is not an easy story to hear.

It is a story filled with sadness, betrayal and violence. We must remind ourselves however, that Jesus died for us because he loves us so much.

Today, following a very old tradition, you may like to eat a Hot Cross Bun. The cross on the bun reminds us of Jesus' death on the cross.

As we are unable to go to church, you may also like to use the Stations of the Cross powerpoint or family service on the school website to reflect on Jesus' journey to his death on Calvary for each one of us.

Dear God,

We remember today the pain of the cross and all that Jesus was willing to suffer for each one of us.

Forgive us for being too busy or too distracted by other things and for not fully appreciating His sacrifice for us

Help us to recognise Jesus' huge gift of love for us.

Amen
